GENERAL INFORMATION

Monterey College of Law (MCL) is a state bar accredited law school offering an evening program of instruction leading to a four year Doctor of Jurisprudence degree or a two year Master of Legal Studies (M.L.S.) degree. Founded in 1972 by prominent local attorneys and judges, the mission of Monterey College of Law is to provide a quality legal education in a community law school whose graduates are dedicated to professional excellence, integrity and community service.

Monterey College of Law offers serious, highly motivated students opportunities to seek a career in law, change their career, re-enter the workforce, or advance their current professional career by obtaining a legal education. Most of the students at Monterey College of Law work full-time while attending law school in the evenings. The current student body ranges in age from 22 to 62 years and the average age is 30 years.

Monterey College of Law students are trained in substantive law, legal analysis, and oral and written communication skills. The Trustees of the College are committed to maintaining high academic standards with small classes. Courses, taught by practicing lawyers and judges, emphasize training in legal skills and professional responsibility. Professors are knowledgeable in legal theory, as well as the process and techniques used in the practice of law. Small class size, active classroom exchange, and accessibility to faculty allow for personal attention and individual instruction. See Appendix 1 for the Staff, Board and Faculty Directory.

Monterey College of Law offers a program of evening classes that meet Monday - Thursday from 6:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. Including the examination periods, the fall and spring semesters are each 16 weeks long and the summer semester is 11 weeks long. Students are expected to attend summer semesters. See Appendix 2 for the 2012-2013 Academic Calendar.

Accreditation
Monterey College of Law has been fully accredited by the Committee of Bar Examiners of the State Bar of California since 1981.

Bar Pass Statistics
Monterey College of Law is committed to providing courses for each substantive area of the law that may be tested on the State Bar Examination. No law school, including MCL, can guarantee bar exam passage to any student. The MCL Trustees, Faculty, and Administration are committed to providing the quality of education that provides the basis for a substantial bar pass rate.

Library
Monterey College of Law maintains a complete library for research use by students, graduates, faculty, and attorneys. The library contains California, Federal and Supreme Court cases, along with annotated statutes, digests, select law reviews, periodicals and other reference materials. Monterey College of Law students also have use of Computer Assisted Legal Research as well as full access to the nearby Monterey County libraries at the Salinas and Monterey County Courthouses and the Santa Cruz County library at the Santa Cruz Courthouse. MCL Students may apply for 24/7 access to the Santa Cruz Library as confirmed in our contract. If interested, please contact Administration. See Appendix 13 for Local Law Libraries.
Registration as a Law Student
Entering students in the State of California must register as first year law students with the Committee of Bar Examiners within 90 days of the start of school. The Committee of Bar Examiners registration form is available on the California State Bar website, www.calbar.ca.gov. Upon completion of the form and payment of the fee, students are officially registered as law students and receive a registration number from the Committee of Bar Examiners. The number is not given to Monterey College of Law and, if the number is lost, the student should contact the Committee of Bar Examiners directly.

The First Year Law Students’ Examination (“FYLSX or Baby Bar”)
Students admitted to Monterey College of Law as “special” students are required to take and pass the First Year Law Students’ Examination within three administrations of first becoming eligible to take it, which is upon successful completion of their first year of law study. A “special” student is one who has completed less than two years of undergraduate study. In addition, Monterey College of Law may require certain students to take and pass the First Year Law Students’ Exam as a condition of acceptance or continuation of law study. These students have been advised of their status and must file the application to take the examination at least two months prior to the examination date directly with the Committee of Bar Examiners, accompanied by the application fee. Application information is found on the California State Bar website, www.calbar.ca.gov.

Residency Requirements
The Committee of Bar Examiners has established residency requirements under the "Rules Regulating Admission to Practice Law in California". Students must complete 1,200 hours of instruction in residence, extending over 120 weeks of study, in order to qualify for a J.D. degree and take the California Bar Exam. Students should take nine or ten units each fall and spring semester and the remaining units over three summer semesters in order to complete all required/desired courses in a timely fashion and comply with the State Bar Rules. Any student wishing a reduced (less than nine units) or increased (over ten units) course load must obtain written approval from the Dean.

Admission to Practice Law in California
The Juris Doctor degree itself does not entitle the law school graduate to be admitted to the California State Bar or to practice law. In order to practice law in California, all of the following requirements must also be satisfied:

1. File an Application to take the California Bar Examination and, after having been found eligible to do so, take and pass the examination; and

2. Take and pass the Multistate Professional Responsibility Examination administered and graded by the National Conference of Bar Examiners; and

3. File an Application for Determination of Moral Character and receive a positive determination from the Committee of Bar Examiners.

Practicing Law in Other States
States other than California may require a degree from an American Bar Association accredited school or approval from an examining committee as a prerequisite to taking their bar examination. Monterey College of Law is not seeking accreditation from the American Bar Association. Study at, or graduation from, this law school may not qualify a student to take the bar examination in other states or satisfy the requirement to practice law in other states. Therefore, if a student intends to seek admission to practice in a state other than California, the student should contact the admitting authority in that state for information regarding the legal education requirements for admission to practice law.
Doctor of Jurisprudence
To obtain a Doctor of Jurisprudence degree, students must comply with the degree requirements of Monterey College of Law and the rules of the Committee of Bar Examiners of the State Bar of California. In order to graduate, students must attain a 70.0 cumulative grade point average (GPA) with a minimum of 86 credits of study, and be in good financial standing at MCL.

REQUIRED AND ELECTIVE CURRICULUM
The law school strives to enable each student to develop substantive knowledge, excellent legal skills and an understanding of the professional and ethical responsibilities facing the practicing lawyer. The curriculum integrates a theoretical understanding of legal principles with training in practical lawyering skills.

In certain cases a student may be allowed to accelerate his/her program study. Students interested in doing so must meet with the Dean after first year Fall AND Spring grades are released.

There is a required J.D. curriculum for each of the four years of study. Entering students begin their studies in August. The majority of courses emphasize substantive law using the traditional casebook method. Advocacy and writing skills courses are also offered. The Clinical Studies Program enables eligible students to serve as interns under the supervision of practicing lawyers and judges.

Elective courses alternate and it is common for 6-8 electives to be offered during each summer semester. Courses such as Civil Litigation and Criminal Litigation are generally offered each year during the fall and spring semesters.

Clinical Studies Program
Third year J.D. students are required to participate in the pro bono Small Claims Advisory Clinic. Students entering under the requirement of 86 units for graduation must also complete at least 1 additional clinical unit. Students are also eligible for a variety of internships under the supervision of practicing lawyers and judges. See Appendix 5 for Clinical Studies Guidelines. Students wishing to participate in clinical studies must have their paperwork completed and signed by the Dean of Clinical Studies before beginning their program, if they wish to receive course credit for their work.

Heisler Moot Court
The Heisler Moot Court class, required in the J.D. program, gives students an opportunity to study, write about, and argue constitutional issues. The semester culminates in an oral argument before trial and appellate court judges. The public is invited to attend the Heisler Moot Court final round of arguments. Funding for the Competition is provided by the Heisler Moot Court Endowment, established in 1985 in memory of Francis Heisler, a renowned proponent of civil liberties. The family of Dr. Friedy and Francis Heisler, and the Monterey Chapter of the American Civil Liberties Union, continue to support the Heisler Moot Court.

Transfer Credit
Transfer students are advised of the class placement and requirements for graduation at Monterey College of Law. Transfer credits may not exceed one-half of the 86 units required to graduate.

Monterey College of Law students may be allowed credit for a class taken at another law school at the discretion of the Dean. An administrative fee of $100 will be charged to process the transfer unit credit for the student's official MCL transcript. However, grades from courses taken elsewhere will not be used in the calculation of the student's grade point average. If a student's request to take classes at another institution been approved by the Dean, the student must also register for that semester, at MCL.

Monterey College of Law students may be eligible to take elective courses for Clinical Studies credit during the summer semester through Study Abroad programs offered at various law schools. Notices from law schools offering Study Abroad programs are posted on the bulletin boards beside the student mailboxes as well as in the student lounge. See Appendix 6 for Study Abroad Guidelines.

Master of Legal Studies (M.L.S.)
The degree is a 36 unit, two year graduate program for individuals who desire to obtain an advanced knowledge of the law and the American legal system, but who do not wish to become lawyers. The degree program is designed for individuals in careers that involve interaction with lawyers and the legal system and for those who are entering professions where an understanding of legal reasoning and the legal system will improve their professional effectiveness. The M.L.S. degree program can be valuable to individuals in fields such as law enforcement, public administration, financial services, human resources, healthcare management, government regulation, non-profit management, court administration, and social services. M.L.S. students attend law courses that are a part of the regular law school curriculum and are held to the same standards for attendance, participation, and grading as J.D. students.

The M.L.S. degree is not a replacement for a law degree, does not entitle an individual to practice law or hold themselves out as a lawyer, and does not qualify the holder to sit for a bar exam.

The M.L.S. degree requirements and curriculum are detailed in Appendix 3.
REGISTRATION AND FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Registration
Students must register on-line at the beginning of each academic year for the Fall, Spring and Summer semester courses. Each semester’s courses may be adjusted during the add/drop week of that semester. Payment of fees, tuition and instructor prepared materials are paid through a variety of payment plans arranged with the MCL Business Manager. Late registration and add/drop fees are assessed if a student does not register within the annual registration period.

Financial Information
Monterey College of Law is an independent, non-profit educational institution which receives no support from taxes or other public funds. The primary source of revenue comes directly from student tuition. At this time Monterey College of Law students are unable to qualify for either federal or state insured educational loans. However, other educational loans are available to MCL students on their, and/or a co-signer’s, personal credit. Students are urged to plan their budgets carefully before entering law school.

Tuition and Fees
Tuition for the 2012 - 2013 school year is set forth in the Tuition and Fee Schedule, Appendix 7. There are additional costs for textbooks and instructor-prepared materials. Tuition and fees are payable at registration or according to the Tuition Interest Plan agreement. Although the College makes every effort to accommodate students in financing their education, failure to make timely payments of tuition, fees or other amounts owed the law school will result in the assessment of late fees, the inability to sit for examinations, denial of registration for the subsequent semester, and the withholding of grades, transcripts and degrees. Fees are subject to change at the discretion of Monterey College of Law.

Payment may be made by check, cashier’s check, money order, VISA, MasterCard, American Express or Discover Card. To assure approval, please make sure that your credit card limit will accommodate the amount that you will be charging. Please note: MCL does not accept cash payments, so please plan an appropriate payment method in advance. See Appendix 7 for the Tuition and Fees Schedule.

Tuition Interest Plan (TIP)
Students who are unable to pay the semester’s tuition amount at the beginning of the semester may use the TIP. TIP is a plan that divides the total tuition into twelve installment payments over the academic year. When a student registers on TIP, s/he is assuming the obligation for the total amount of tuition for that year (subject to the tuition refund policy) and must sign a promissory note. The interest rate for 2012 – 2013 is 5%. Students must be current on their TIP payments in order to be allowed to sit for any exams.

Student Loans
Monterey College of Law students are eligible to apply for financial assistance through some private educational loan programs. All loans are transactions between the individual student and the lending sources. While the College does not guarantee student loans, it is required to certify each loan application. Applicants pay a loan certification fee to Monterey College of Law at the time of the loan application. This fee is non-refundable, even if the loan is not approved. When the loan check is received, MCL will notify, and draw a check payable to, the applicant. At that time all tuition owed for the current semester must be paid.

Delinquent Payments
Students must pay tuition installments on time. Students who are unable to make their payments in a timely manner should contact the Business Manager IMMEDIATELY. TIP payments are due on the 15th of each month, and if received late, a $50 late charge will be assessed for each month the payment is overdue. Students who have outstanding amounts owed to the College are not eligible to register, take midterm/final exams, or receive transcripts, grades or degrees. See Appendix 8 for MCL Collection Procedures.

Returned Check Policy

Any student whose check is returned for nonpayment (N.S.F.) will be subject to a returned check charge (see Appendix 7.) Returned checks will not be resubmitted. A cashier’s check or money order payable to Monterey College of Law will be required to cover any current amount due.

Scholarships

MCL awarded scholarships are available each Fall and Spring semester for second, third, and fourth year students. First year students are eligible to apply for scholarships during the Fall semester. Scholarships cover a portion of the tuition and are awarded on the basis of scholastic achievement, financial need and/or service to MCL and the community. Students are notified by email when scholarship applications are due. Application forms are available on the MCL website and MUST be accompanied by the student’s most recent IRS Tax Form 1040. Only students whose grade point average is 70.0 or above, and who are in good financial standing, are eligible for consideration. MCL students are also eligible for scholarships awarded by outside sources. Notices regarding these scholarships are posted periodically on the Scholarships Information bulletin board. See Appendix 9 for a current list of scholarships.

Tuition Refund Policy

To be eligible for a tuition refund, a student must notify the Dean and the Registrar in writing of his or her intention to withdraw from studies. The amount of refund is determined as of the date of receipt of written notice of withdrawal and is calculated as follows:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Withdrawal Type</th>

</table>

* 60% of instruction is completed in the 9th week of classes during the fall and spring semesters and in the 6th week of classes during the summer semester.

Please note that Annual Fees are due and payable regardless of when a student withdraws. Reservation fees will not be refunded.

Students attending the College under the Veteran's Administration Bill are governed by a special refund policy.

ATTENDANCE

State Bar Requirements

Committee of Bar Examiners rules require "regular and punctual attendance" in order to satisfy the residence credit requirements. The Committee of Bar Examiners expect attendance at "not less than 80% of the regularly scheduled class hours." Monterey College of Law requires that an official class record be maintained that shows the attendance record for every student.

Monterey College of Law Attendance Policy

Attendance is taken at each class and attendance rosters are reviewed by the Dean. Students missing two class sessions of one course are required to make an appointment with the Dean to discuss the absences. Students with more than three absences a semester are subject to dismissal from that course. The student may not continue to attend classes, or take the midterm or final examination in that course, without approval of the Dean.

Student Honor Code
Monterey College of Law is an adult, professional, graduate educational institution. Law students, as future members of the legal profession, are subject to the responsibilities and ethical standards of the profession. The well-being of the profession and the integrity of Monterey College of Law depend upon the maintenance of such standards. Student behavior and conduct in class should be appropriate and any behavior determined to interfere with the learning opportunities for other students by Monterey College of Law administration or faculty may be cause for dismissal from school. See Appendix 10 for the Student Honor Code.

Legal Holidays
Monterey College of Law administrative offices are closed on legal holidays and during the second half of December. Class scheduling for legal holidays is determined by the Dean and faculty. Classes canceled because of legal holidays must be rescheduled with the Registrar by the professors for another date in order to meet the requirement of 15 hours of classroom instruction for each unit of credit. See Appendix 2 for the Academic Calendar.

EXAMINATION PROCEDURES

General Policy
There is a written final examination given in every course offered for credit, with the exception of Clinical Studies (including the Advisory Clinic), skills training, trial practice, or other designated courses in which substantial written work is required. Exams prepared by faculty are consistent with the coursework.

Exam grading by faculty is on an anonymous basis. Student identification numbers are used to identify student test papers. Faculty members are not given access to student identification numbers. In order to maintain this anonymity, a student may not contact the instructor regarding any exam pending the release of grades for that exam. Questions should instead be directed to the Dean or the Registrar.

All written examinations have a grade for each answer clearly marked on the student test papers. These grades may indicate “raw points” rather than a final grade for the course.

First-Year Exams
Midterm examinations are required in all two-semester courses. If the first-year midterm grade in any course is higher than the grade on the final exam, the midterm exam will be counted 20% in calculating the final course grade. If the final exam grade is higher than the midterm exam grade, the midterm exam grade will not be used in any way.

Second-/Third-/Fourth-Year Exams
Midterm examinations are required in all two-semester courses. Both midterm and final exam grades are used in computing final course grades. Midterm exam grades account for 1/3 of the overall final grade and final exam grades account for 2/3 of the final course grade.

Courses that are one semester in duration as well as pass/fail courses, clinic courses, clinical studies, and similar courses are exempt from this policy. Such courses are governed by grading criteria set out in the course syllabus and approved by the Dean.
Administration of Exams
No cell phones, notebooks, outlines, books, papers, attaché cases, backpacks, jackets, computers, calculators, tape recorders, etc., may be brought into the examination room, unless approved by the professor. Chewing gum, eating, drinking, or smoking are not allowed in the examination room. No mechanical timers, including noise-making watches, are permitted. Students who handwrite examinations may use black or blue ink pens only. Pencil-written examinations are not permitted.

Monterey College of Law also offers students the ability to take an exam using their laptop computer. In order to be eligible to use a laptop, Students must review the Examination Policy in Appendix 4 and abide by all of the regulations.

Exams begin promptly at the designated time. Students must be in the exam room 15 minutes prior to the commencement of the exam and be prepared to take exams. A student arriving after the commencement of the exam may take the exam but will not receive any additional time to complete it. Cell phones are not allowed in the examination room.

Exam proctors are not required to delay exams to provide instructions to late arrivals. Students who are electing to take exams using laptops must have their computer on and the exam software ready to begin no later than 15 minutes prior to the commencement of the exam. Late arrivals will not be allowed to use laptop and will be directed to the writing exam room to eliminate the distraction of computers being set up after the start of the exam.

If a student leaves the classroom during the examination period, he or she is not permitted to take any materials out of the room or to speak with other students inside or outside of the room. This rule includes telephone calls. If a student leaves the examination room, s/he will not be given additional time to complete the examination.

If a student finishes an examination before time is called, he or she may turn in the student test papers to the proctor and leave. However, if only 5 minutes of the examination time remain, the student must remain in the room until time is called.

Any student who continues to write/type after time has been called will not have his or her paper graded, may receive a failing grade and will be subject to the Student Honor Code. See Appendix 10. Since most law examinations are designed to impose time pressures, writing beyond the allotted time is, in a very real sense, "cheating". Any form of cheating can result in administrative dismissal. When time is called at the end of the examination, each student must remain seated. The proctor will instruct students how to turn in student test papers, which includes personally handing them in to be checked off. Only when this procedure has been completed may students leave. Student test papers "lost" at this stage are the sole responsibility of the student.

Students with disabilities must inform the Dean and the Registrar, in writing, of their intention to pursue special accommodations at the beginning of each academic year or as soon as the disability is diagnosed, complete the Special Accommodations paperwork, and provide appropriate diagnostic documentation. Students with disabilities may request specific special accommodations for examinations consistent with the State Bar examination policy that regulates the administration of the California Bar Exam. Assignment of special seating shall be limited to students with special accommodations. Special seating shall be assigned by the Exam proctor subject to policies approved by the Dean.

Examination Scheduling
Exams are generally given on the night of the week that the class is scheduled. Students must commit to taking the examinations on the date and time scheduled when they register for the courses. Allowances are not made for students who are late to the examination or who fail for any reason to complete any part of the examination, except as indicated below.
Rescheduling of Examinations
If, due to extraordinary circumstances or unusual emergencies (e.g. major illness, traffic accident, earthquake, etc.), a student is unable to take an examination at the scheduled time, the student must request permission to reschedule the exam. Except in cases of sudden illness or inability to contact the law school, requests to reschedule an exam must be made in advance, and in writing to the Dean. Approval for rescheduling an exam is entirely within the discretion of the Dean. Professors should not be contacted with a rescheduling request under any circumstances.

If the Dean grants permission to reschedule the taking of an exam, a rescheduling examination fee of $100.00 may be charged to cover the cost of a new exam and grading. In addition, a re-examination fee of $400.00 will be charged to cover the cost of an exam proctor. In some classes the student may have to wait until the course is offered again to re-test.

Illegible Handwriting
Students are held responsible for submitting legible examination papers. In the unusual event that a professor is unable to read an exam due to illegible handwriting, the following procedures will apply:

1) The illegible examination paper will be submitted to the Dean who will attempt to locate a reader. Should a reader not be found, the student will dictate the exam answers verbatim from the submitted student test papers into a recorder in the presence of a Monterey College of Law staff member.

2) The dictation will be transcribed and a copy of the transcription given to the professor for grading. The student may not see or correct the transcription.

3) All additional costs related to this procedure will be paid by the student. Fees to cover both administration and transcription will be charged. See Appendix 7.

4) If there is a discrepancy between what the Monterey College of Law staff member thinks the handwritten paper said and what the student dictated, the staff member will highlight or make a note of any discrepancies and bring them to the attention of the Dean. The Dean will resolve any conflict.

Exam Packs
An examination packet containing copies of the exam and instructor provided model answer outlines for each class level is given to the SBA for distribution. Exam packs are provided to the SBA for duplication and distribution to students during the fall and spring semesters.

Grade Deadlines
Generally, faculty members grade student test papers within 30 days of the exam date. When the grades are received by MCL they are entered, the final course grades are calculated, and the Dean reviews them. Grades are posted on the student’s personal account on Populi.

Grades are released by class level. No course grades are released until grades for all courses in the class level (e.g. 1st year, 2nd year, etc.) have been submitted by the professors, entered and reviewed.

Student Review of Graded Test Papers
After grades are released, students will receive a form on which they may request their student test papers for review. As a convenience, students are allowed to copy their exams on the SBA copier. In no circumstances are student test papers allowed to leave the law school.

Exam Review
A student may request a review of an examination paper by the faculty member. The purpose of such review is only to enhance the student's education by providing appropriate feedback only. In no instance shall this review be construed as an opportunity to dispute the grade assigned unless it is pursuant to a Grade Appeal as set forth below.
Grade Appeals

Grades cannot be changed unless there are computational errors or in cases of gross unfairness in the exam or by the professor. Apparent mathematical errors should be brought to the attention of the Registrar within 15 calendar days of the date the grade cards were mailed.

Grade appeals based on gross unfairness in the exam or by the professor must be made in writing to the Dean within 15 calendar days of the date the grade cards were mailed out. Any student filing a petition for a grade review must schedule an exam review with the professor at the same time and as a prerequisite to the petition for a grade appeal. Grade appeals are referred to the Academic Standards Committee that can raise, lower, or retain the grade appealed.

GRADING SYSTEM

Monterey College of Law uses a numerical grading system to reflect the academic performance of its students:

- 85-100  Outstanding
- 77-84   Good to Excellent
- 70-76   Marginal to Average
- 60-69   Below Average
- Below 60 Failure/No credit

Numerical grades are given for courses. All courses are graded except for those indicated as Pass/Fail on the syllabus or if the students are notified by their professor.

Certain other designations may be entered on a student’s transcript. None of these are included in the student’s GPA. For “Pass/Fail” coursework, the following designations apply:

- P+  Pass with high honors (outstanding work equivalent to an “A”)
- P   Pass
- P-  Marginal but passing
- F   Failure (no credit)

The remaining official designations of Monterey College of Law are:

- A/55 Administrative Failure
- A/D Administrative Dismissal
- W   Withdrawal by permission
- I   Incomplete
- N   No Credit (Mid-year course not completed)

Criteria for Final Course Grade

In most courses, final grades are determined by a classroom final examination. Additional criteria (e.g. class exercises, assignments or participation) may be used as well. Pass/fail courses, clinic courses, skills courses, clinical studies, and similar courses are exempt from this policy. Such courses are governed by criteria set out in the course syllabus and approved by the Dean.

The final examination will usually consist of essay questions, each requiring a minimum of 40 minutes for analysis, outline and written answer. Objective examination questions, if any, may comprise up to one-half of the examination. The minimum length of the examination is the number of hours equal to the number of units in the course. Faculty have the option of increasing the examination by an additional hour. However, no examination shall exceed four hours in length. Faculty may require completion of additional work assignments during the semester as well. Failure to timely submit one or more required assignment may result in a failing grade for the course.
Course Failure
A grade of less than 60 is a failing grade. Although individual questions on an exam may receive scores of less than 55, a final grade, for the semester less than 55 will be entered and computed into the GPA as a 55. As a general rule, if a required course is failed, it must be repeated. Failing it a second time results in academic disqualification. Non-required courses need not be repeated, although students are encouraged to repeat, and successfully pass, all selected subjects.

SCHOLASTIC REQUIREMENTS

Academic standing and class ranking are determined once a year, at the close of the Spring semester based on the cumulative Grade Point Average (GPA).

Graduation Requirements
In order to graduate, a student must have successfully completed 86 units and must be in good standing at the end of the spring semester of the fourth year.

Good Standing
In order to be “in good standing”, a student must be in both academic and financial good standing. A student with a cumulative GPA of 70.0 or better is in good academic standing. A student who is current on all financial obligations to the College is in good financial standing.

Academic Counseling
Students who recognize they are having academic problems should request counseling on an individual basis with their professors AND THE Director of Academic Support. Monterey College of Law maintains a policy of offering as much assistance as possible.

Academic Disqualification
Any student with a cumulative GPA below 70.00 at the end of the Spring Semester is academically disqualified and may not continue in school unless a petition for re-admission is granted by the Academic Standards Committee. Such petitions are granted only in extraordinary situations.

Students academically disqualified are entitled to a refund of 100% paid tuition and fees associated with uncompleted courses at the time of disqualification. If a petition for re-admission is timely filed and denied, or if subsequently granted and the student determines not to continue in school, a 100% refund will be made for paid tuition and fees associated with uncompleted courses at the time of disqualification.

Petition For Re-admission
Academically disqualified students may petition the Academic Standards Committee for re-admission. A typed original and four copies of the petition and supporting documents must be received by the Dean within 15 calendar days of the mailing of notice of disqualification. The petition must:

1. demonstrate that the student possesses the requisite ability to perform in the study of law and that the student’s academic disqualification was due to causes other than lack of academic capacity, e.g. unforeseen personal or family difficulties, illness, and
2. contain letters of verification or support from professors and others which address these causes, and
3. explain in detail the change in circumstances and conditions that will enable the student to devote a substantial amount of time to the study of law in order to achieve good academic standing.

The Dean or admissions officer must sign and place in the applicant’s file a statement of the reasons the committee gave for admitting the applicant.
Academic Probation
If the petition for re-admission is granted, the Academic Standards Committee may impose academic probation and conditions of re-admission on the student.

Withdrawal from Courses
A student may withdraw from a course prior to the last regular class meeting with permission from the Dean. Unauthorized withdrawal could endanger a student's eligibility to sit for the Bar Exam under the Committee of Bar Examiners rules.

Reductions in course load may affect a student's qualification under Bar residency requirements. Students who do not obtain permission to withdraw, or do not take a required examination without being excused, will receive an Administrative Failure (A/55). This grade will be computed into the student's GPA.

Leaves of Absence:
Students are expected to complete their J.D. degree in four consecutive years. Interrupting the course of studies can be detrimental to the student's success in law school. Exceptional circumstances (loss of a job, severe health problems, etc.) may necessitate that a student seek a "leave of absence".

Students considering a leave of absence should make an appointment to speak with the Dean. A written leave of absence request will be subsequently filed with the Dean specifying the reason for the proposed leave of absence and for the time period requested. The student's academic record will be considered when evaluating the request. The request must:

1. be for no more than one academic year, and
2. agree that the student will abide by the Monterey College of Law academic policies and fees in force at the time of the student’s return, and
3. agree that the student's failure to return to Monterey College of Law at the expiration of the approved leave of absence will result in the student’s file becoming inactive and require the filing of a new application and petition for re-admission to the school.

At the discretion of the Dean, a student may be allowed to take a slightly lighter class load per semester, thereby extending the course of study to longer than four years.

All current tuition must be paid in full before a leave of absence is granted.

Withdrawal from Law School
A student may withdraw from the law school any time prior to the last regular class meeting. Students should seek counseling from the Dean before withdrawing.

If the student contemplates seeking re-admission to the law school at a future date, he or she must provide reasons for the withdrawal in writing. This information will be considered by the Admissions Committee at the time of application for re-admission.

All current tuition must be paid in full to withdraw in good standing.

Military Emergency
Military and Reserve personnel who are called to duty in an emergency situation will be granted a leave of absence and may return to Monterey College of Law with the same academic standing held prior to the time of leave of absence was granted. Students on emergency military leave may choose either of the following:
1. Those students paid in full may either request a full refund or request the tuition payment to be held until they return and resume their studies, with no increase should the tuition be raised.

2. Students on the TIP payment plan with an outstanding balance due will resume payment upon their return to classes.

Incomplete
Where unusual circumstances arise which create hardship and prevent a student from completing course requirements in a timely fashion, a student may request an “Incomplete” in a course. Requests must be made in writing prior to the end of classes. The request for “Incomplete” extends the deadline for completion of course work and must be approved by the Dean. If the “Incomplete” is not removed in the time specified, the grade will be changed to an Administrative Failure (A/55).

Except in extraordinary circumstances, a student will not be permitted to take an “Incomplete” in more than one course in a single semester. An “Incomplete” in Clinical Studies which is not caused by the student is exempt from this rule.

Administrative Dismissal
A student may be administratively dismissed for the following reasons: excessive and unexcused absences (i.e., more than 20%); failure to take exams; failure to promptly pay tuition and fees when due; a violation of the Student Honor Code.

The Dean shall state the reasons for administrative dismissal in writing and mail a copy to the student by first class U.S. Mail. No tuition or fees are refunded following such dismissal unless waived by the Dean. The Dean may enter either Administrative Failure (A/55) or Withdrawal by Permission (W) for all pending coursework, depending on the circumstances. The student may petition for re-admission to the Academic Standards Committee under the procedure set forth above.

HARASSMENT FREE ENVIRONMENT
Monterey College of law maintains a strict policy prohibiting unlawful harassment in any form, including verbal, physical, and sexual harassment on campus. This policy applies to students, faculty, and staff. See Appendix 11 for the MCL Sexual Harassment Policy.

Sexual harassment includes, but is not limited to, making unwanted sexual advances and requests for sexual favors either explicit or implicit. Sexual harassment also includes conduct of a sexual nature that demeanes or humiliates the student or employee, substantially interferes with an individual's work performance, or creates an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working environment.

Any student or employee who believes he or she has been harassed on campus by a student, staff or faculty member of MCL should report the facts of the incident and the names of the individuals involved promptly to the Sexual Harassment Officer as defined in the copy of the policy. A copy of the policy is also available at the Administrative Office or the school website.

All harassment complaints shall be investigated in a timely manner and conducted in the strictest confidence and in accordance with established grievance procedures. After appropriate investigation, any student, faculty or staff member who is found in violation of this policy is subject to appropriate discipline. Depending on the circumstances, disciplinary action may include expulsion termination, or employment termination.
Sexual Assault Policy
Pursuant to California Education Code Section 94385, Monterey College of Law maintains a policy prohibiting sexual assault on campus. Any student or employee who believes he or she has been sexually assaulted on campus should report the facts of the incident and the names of the individuals involved promptly to the Sexual Harassment Officer as defined in the policy attached as Appendix 11.

All sexual assault complaints shall be investigated in a timely manner and conducted in the strictest confidence and in accordance with established grievance procedures.

After appropriate investigation, any student, faculty or staff member found in violation of this policy is subject to appropriate discipline. Depending on the circumstances, disciplinary action may include expulsion, termination, or employment termination.

All sexual assaults should be reported to the police or 911 immediately. The Monterey Rape Crisis Line (373-4357) can provide support, information and assistance.

STUDENT SERVICES

First Year Buddy Program
This program is sponsored by the SBA specifically for first year students. Entering students are matched with second year “buddies” who serve as a resource, provide support, and help to guide students through the first year of law school.

Program for Academic Study and Support
All Monterey College of Law students are invited to take advantage of academic support services provided by the College. Academic support services are coordinated by the Director of Academic Support and may include individual counseling, tutoring, study groups, and other services.

Student Emergency Loan Fund
Created by former Dean Karen Kadushin and funded by the contributions from members of the Board of Trustees and faculty, the Student Emergency Loan Fund (SELF) enables students to borrow up to $500 as short-term, interest free loans to cover personal emergencies.

Mentor Program
The Mentor Program, available to all students, is sponsored by the Monterey County Bar Association. Individual students are paired with local attorneys according to their interest in a particular field of law. The relationship enables the student to get a preview of the experience of being a practicing attorney.

Placement Assistance
Monterey College of Law encourages local attorneys, legal agencies, and businesses to post their employment opportunities with the College. A variety of positions for attorneys, law clerks, research assistants, etc., are made available to students and graduates via MCL email. The Assistant Dean of Admissions and Student Placement coordinates the program.

Special Accommodations
Monterey College of Law welcomes students with disabilities. The College requests that students provide information and, if appropriate, complete a request for special accommodations as early as possible. This will allow time for the College to address each individual situation thoroughly. Request forms should be submitted to the Dean and Registrar. The request shall also include appropriate diagnostic documentation supporting the request for accommodations.

Student Records/Privacy Act
The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 protects students from having their records released to persons or institutions without the student’s written consent and allows students to review their own official education records to make sure that no misleading, inaccurate, or otherwise inappropriate information has been included in their files. The College will not release student information to third parties without the express written consent of the student.

Non-Discrimination Policy
Monterey College of Law admits students without regard to age, sex, race, religion, creed, color, physical handicap, sexual preference, national or ethnic origin.

Student Assistance Program
If a student is in need of counseling for issues related to drugs, alcohol or depression, MCL will refer the student to the confidential State Bar of California Lawyer Assistance Program for professional help. Unless disciplinary action is warranted for disruptive activity or other violations of the Student Honor Code, all communication related to the Student Assistance Program shall be confidential and will not be included in the students permanent record.

STUDENT AND ALUMNI ORGANIZATIONS

Student Bar Association
All Monterey College of Law students join the Monterey College of Law Student Bar Association (SBA) and receive the benefits of membership. Each year new officers and class representatives are elected. An SBA representative sits on the MCL Board of Trustees as a non-voting member and works with the administration to ensure that student needs are known. The SBA presents programs, including panels on techniques of effective law study, and social events. See Appendix 12 for Student Bar Association By-Laws.

Alumni Association
The Monterey College of Law Alumni Association serves as a support group for the students, a resource network for graduates, and a bridge between recent graduates and graduates in practice.

Monterey College of Law is pleased to announce that the California Committee of Bar Examiners has approved the first Master of Legal Studies ("M.L.S.") degree program for a California accredited law school. The degree is a 36 unit, two-year graduate program for individuals who desire to obtain an advanced knowledge of the law and the American legal system, but who do not wish to become lawyers. The degree program is designed for individuals in careers that involve interaction with lawyers and the legal system and for those who are entering professions where an understanding of legal reasoning and the legal system will improve their professional effectiveness. The M.L.S. degree program can be valuable to individuals in fields such as law enforcement, public administration, financial services, human resources, healthcare management, government regulation, non-profit management, court administration, and social services. M.L.S. students attend law courses that are part of the regular law school curriculum and are held to the same standards for attendance, participation, and grading as law students.

The M.L.S. degree is not a replacement for a law degree, does not entitle an individual to practice law or hold themselves out as a lawyer, and does not qualify the holder to sit for a bar exam.

Admission Requirements:

1. Submission of a completed M.L.S. Degree Program Application form and payment of the non-refundable application fee.
2. Previous completion of at least 60 units of college credit in an academic (non-vocational) program.
3. Copies of all college, graduate school, and professional school transcripts, whether or not a degree was obtained.
4. Two letters of recommendation.
5. A personal statement on how the M.L.S. degree will advance the applicant’s professional or academic objectives.

Applicants for the M.L.S. degree program are not required to take the LSAT, GRE, GMAT or other graduate admissions tests. If an applicant has taken one of these standardized graduate admissions tests, they are encouraged to include the scores on their application, but are not required to do so. Foreign applicants of non-English background are required to take the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TEOFL) and submit their official scores to MCL. Decisions on admissions are made on the basis of a “full file” review that includes each applicant’s previous academic record, test scores (if required or submitted), work experience, personal and professional recommendations, and a personal statement.

Program Requirements:

1. Completion of 36 units of graduate legal studies. A minimum of 18 units must be completed in residence at Monterey College of Law. Students are allowed flexibility in selecting courses in order to provide the opportunity to focus on specific areas of legal interest. There are 26 units of required courses and 10 units of electives.
2. Required Courses (units): Contracts (6), Torts (6), Criminal Law (3), Constitutional Law (6), Legal Research (3), and Legal Writing & Analysis (2).
3. Elective Courses: The 10 units of electives may be selected from other law courses that are offered as part of the regular law curriculum (subject to pre-requisites for certain advanced law courses). In addition to regular law courses, up to 3 elective units of clinical programs, research and writing, study abroad, or pre-approved independent study courses may be counted toward the degree requirements.

4. No thesis or oral exams are required.

5. M.L.S. students are required to meet the same attendance requirements and are held to the same standards for class preparation and participation as regular law students.

6. M.L.S. students are subject to all administrative policies, including the Student Honor Code, exam procedures, registration, payment of tuition and fees, academic disqualification, and grade appeals that are contained in the Student Handbook and are not specifically directed to the J.D. program.

7. No units earned as part of the M.L.S. program are eligible to be applied toward the J.D. degree program. A student in the J.D. program is not prohibited from petitioning the Academic Standards Committee to request a transfer from the J.D. program to the M.L.S. program. If the transfer is approved, all units applied toward the M.L.S. degree shall be exclusively for that purpose and are not eligible to be applied toward the J.D. degree.

Grading Standards:

During their course of study, M.L.S. students will not be identified separately from regular J.D. students in courses, examinations, or the grading process. All papers, assignments, and exams will be graded using the MCL system for assigning student or exam ID numbers that protect student identity and ensures anonymous grading.

Administration and Student Advising:

The M.L.S. degree program will be under the academic direction and supervision of the Dean of Students. All other administrative services will be provided by the regular departments of MCL.

Faculty:

Since all M.L.S. courses are regular J.D. courses, the faculty for the M.L.S. degree will be the same as for the J.D. program.

Scholarships, Awards, and Student Loans:

Students in the M.L.S. program shall be eligible for scholarships, awards, and student loans. In some cases the students will be eligible for the same categories as regular J.D. students. For certain awards, special recognition will be developed for M.L.S. students.

EXAMINATION RULES

(These Rules are Intended to Track the Rules Applicable to the Bar Examinations Administered by the State Bar of California but are not necessarily governed by said Rules or their interpretation by the State Bar)

In General

Examination Area Environment

Students should come prepared to accommodate other noises, such as those made by other students taking the examination, equipment inside or outside the test center that may make noise while operating, other meetings or conventions in the same facility, etc. Ear plugs are strongly recommended.

Students may not communicate with one another in any way, either verbally or non-verbally, during the administration of the examination.

Only the following items, if actually needed, are allowed into the examination area without timely request and prior written approval:

1. The materials distributed by the Law School at the time of the examination
2. Pencils and/or pens
3. Silent analog watches, timers and clocks no larger than 4 x 4" inches
4. Rulers
5. Paper clips
6. Highlighters
7. Back Support
8. No more than two pillows, both without pillow case covers
9. One book stand
10. One foot rest
11. Splints
12. Braces
13. Inhalers
14. Crutches
15. Wheelchairs
16. Casts
17. Hearing aids
18. TENS Units
19. Eyeglasses
20. Ear plugs or plastic material normally associated with the sport of swimming
21. Feminine hygiene items
22. Medicine
23. Wallets
24. The sheet of paper supplied by the Law School.

Students cannot bring gum, candy or other food or drinks into the examination room.

Students will be permitted to exit the examination room to use the bathroom. When leaving the room, all examination materials must remain in the examination room. Students are not permitted to leave the Law School building during the administration of any examination and are prohibited from entering any other classroom of the Law School or the Student Lounge.

Subsequent to the first scheduled administration of an examination, students shall not communicate, directly or indirectly, with the instructor whose course is being examined about the contents, administration or grading of the examination until after the results of the examination have been released by the Law School.

Failure to Follow Examination Policy and Procedures

Failure to follow any of the examination policies and procedures set forth herein and/or all oral and written instructions given at the time of any examination, could result in an Honor Code violation, notification to the Office of Admissions of the Committee of Bar Examiners of the State Bar of California of a violation of examination rules and dismissal from the Law School. Conduct that results in a violation of security or which disrupts the administration of the examination, including, but not limited to, bringing unauthorized items into the examination room; writing after time has been called; looking at another student’s paper or papers; looking at any paper or papers not permitted; talking while the examination is in session; being abusive to other persons, staff, proctors and/or other examination personnel, could also result in an Honor Code violation, notification to the Committee of a violation of examination rules and dismissal from the Law School. Students are expected, at all times, to maintain a professional attitude toward other students, faculty, staff, proctors and other personnel.

Handwritten Examinations

Student test papers and scratch paper will be provided to students by the Law School. ONLY blue or black ink will be accepted for handwritten examinations. DO NOT USE PENCIL.

Upon completion of the examination, all examination questions, the examination facing page, any examination booklet, all student test papers and all sheets of paper, used or unused, must be returned to the Law School.
Students must place only their identification number, the course title, and the question number being answered, on the cover of each student test papers. In order to maintain anonymity in the grading process, students must NOT put their name or other identifying matter on or in their student test papers.

The student’s answer to each examination question must be started in a new student test papers. If students stop writing in the middle of a page, but continue the answer on another page, they are advised to provide a notation or draw an arrow and put an “X” on the remainder of the unwritten page or pages so that the instructor does not overlook the additional writing.

When a student finishes the examination, student test papers must be brought to the Proctor’s desk and placed in the appropriate place provided. Writers using more than one student test papers per question must staple together all student test papers pertaining to a single question.

Students who finish the examination early are expected to leave the examination room quietly so as not to disturb students who are not yet finished. During the final five (5) minutes of the examination, no one will be permitted to leave or deposit their student test papers in the places designated on the Proctor’s desk until time is called.

When time is called, students must stop writing immediately. Failure to do so will be documented and may constitute an Honor Code violation and may, in the sole and absolute, but good faith, subjective discretion of the Dean, in consultation with the proctor, may be cause for a reduction in the student’s grade.

MONTEREY COLLEGE OF LAW’S LAPTOP PROGRAM FOR EXAMINATIONS

Monterey College of Law students may also use laptop computers for examinations.

All students wishing to use laptop computers must timely download the designated software, become certified in its use by the deadline that will be published by Monterey College of Law AND personally possess a laptop computer with minimum hardware and software requirements imposed by the examination software provider, the Law School, or both.

BY ELECTING TO TAKE THE EXAMINATION BY LAPTOP, THE STUDENT REPRESENTS AS A FACT TO THE SCHOOL THAT THE STUDENT POSSESSES (OR HAS THE USE OF) A LAPTOP IN THE REQUIRED CONFIGURATION.

For students electing to use laptop computers, software provided by Examsoft will be used during the written portions of examinations. Students must register and complete the registration process by the beginning the date or dates of the academic year specified by the registrar. It is the student’s responsibility to be familiar with the software, since technical support will not be provided before or during the examination session.

Students using laptops must take their laptop computer home after each examination and bring it back for each subsequent examination. On each day of the examination, students using laptop computers must be seated no later than 6:15 p.m., at which time instructions for making the laptop computer ready to use will begin. Students should plan to arrive at the Law School at least 15 minutes prior to that time so that they can be seated comfortably. General instructions regarding administration of the examination will commence promptly at 6:20 p.m. Late arriving students will not be allowed to use a laptop computer for the examination. In addition, if your laptop computer is not ready for use at the designated time for commencement of the examination, you must begin the examination by handwriting. NO extra time will be provided.
Student laptop computers do not need to be inspected prior to the beginning of the examination. In the event of a software, hardware or power failure before or during administration of the examination, a student will be required to handwrite their answers to the examination. Students will not be permitted to use typewriters or word processors as backups and “back-up” computers are not allowed.

It is strongly recommended that students using Examsoft become familiar with its use well in advance of any examination so that in the event of any technical difficulties in its use students can notify the Examsoft Technical Help Desk to report problems and get technical support. In addition, students can get on-line technical support at www.Examsoft.com.

Students must bring their own power cord and laptop computer to the examination room each day of the examination. Although an electrical outlet will be provided, students must be sure to have a fully charged battery in case of a temporary power outage.

Once a student is registered with Examsoft, NO CHANGES can be made to the configuration of the student’s laptop computer. Do not uninstall the Examsoft program for at least four (4) weeks following the examination in the event that a backup copy of the examination needs to be accessed. Do not have someone else download the software for you.

Pay careful attention to and follow the instructions provided during the examination. Use great care when highlighting and deleting during the examination as well as using other key functions that may significantly change a document. Students who do not take the time to become familiar with their laptop computers or with word processing functions should consider handwriting their examination answers. No extra time or other administrative relief will be granted in the event that an examination file is deleted or otherwise altered.

Printing Answers

Examination answers will be printed by staff following the conclusion of each session. You will not be permitted to oversee the printing process. Answers are printed using a standard format, such as line spacing and font, which may cause the final printed answer to look different from what you saw on your laptop computer screen. However, the substance of your answers will not have changed. If there is a problem with the printing of your answers, you may be required to bring your laptop computer back to the Law School so that the encrypted backup copy of the examination answer(s) on your laptop computer’s hard drive can be retrieved.

Laptop Computer Problems After Registration

If, after registering with Examsoft, students experience problems with their laptop computers (i.e., the computer crashes), students may return to the Examsoft website and download the software into the new or repaired laptop computer at any time one week prior to the first day of the examination.

Any attempt to disable or tamper with the security features of the software is prohibited. If it is discovered that tampering has been attempted, this information will be reported to the Law School and the Committee of Bar Examiners for whatever action either or both deem appropriate. It is each student’s responsibility to be familiar with their equipment, the Examsoft software and instructions provided by the Law School and Examsoft on its website or elsewhere prior to the start of the examination.
Information Regarding the Examsoft Software Program

The Law School has contracted with Examsoft for the Monterey College of Law Laptop Program.

REGISTERING WITH Examsoft, INSTALLING THE SOFTWARE, and UTILIZATION OF ALL AND ANY OF ITS FEATURES is strictly a matter between Examsoft and each student. By electing to take the examination by laptop, the Student waives any and all claims, against the Law School, any employee, agent, representative, or contractor to the Law School, known or unknown, in connection with any and all matters related thereto, directly or indirectly. The Law School’s contract with Examsoft provides, in pertinent part, the following terms, by which all electing students will be bound, in direct favor and benefit of the Law School and EXAMSOFT, and each of them:

“NO RETURN OR REFUND. A demonstration of the Software is available without charge on the EXAMSOFT, INC. web site at http://www.Examsoft.com. If you have any questions regarding the method of operation of the Software or its features, please contact tech support at 866.429.8889 or 954.429.8889.

AS IS. TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, SOFTWARE SECURE, INC. DISCLAIMS ALL WARRANTIES, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED. IN PARTICULAR, THE SOFTWARE IS PROVIDED "AS IS", WITHOUT WARRANTY OF ANY KIND, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION THE WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE AND NON-INFRINGEMENT. The entire risk as to the quality and performance of the Software is borne by you. This disclaimer of warranty constitutes an essential part of this Agreement. SOME JURISDICTIONS DO NOT ALLOW EXCLUSIONS OF AN IMPLIED WARRANTY, SO THIS DISCLAIMER MAY NOT APPLY TO YOU AND YOU MAY HAVE OTHER LEGAL RIGHTS THAT VARY BY JURISDICTION.

Export Controls. You agree you will comply with the provisions of U.S. laws restricting export of any software, technical data or other information or materials, including without limitation the United States Export Administration Act and regulations there under, and will not export any hardware, software, technical data or other information or materials to any country in violation thereof, and specifically you certify that your use of the Software complies with the requirements of such Act and regulations.”

Goals

The goals of the Clinical Studies Program at Monterey College of Law are to:

- train students in legal skills (analytical thinking, oral and written communication);
- provide students with insight into the workings of the legal system;
- provide students with experiences that would not otherwise be available to them;
- promote the sense of professional responsibility among law students; and
- expand Monterey College of Law students’ connections with the local community.

Students participating in the Clinical Studies Program are visible representatives of Monterey College of Law to the legal community. Graduates of Monterey College of Law often obtain employment after admission to the bar as the result of their exposure to courts, law firms and agencies during the clinical studies experience.

Participation

To be considered for placement, students must:

1. be in good academic standing (GPA 70.00 or higher);
2. be in good financial standing;
3. be enrolled as a second, third or fourth year student (under exceptional circumstances, a first year student may be considered for placement);
4. have completed any prerequisite course requirements; and
5. submit the application prior to the semester for which credit is sought.

Students placed with a court, law firm, or agency through the Clinical Studies Program must adhere to the standards of professional conduct as set forth in the Code of Professional Responsibility of the American Bar Association and the Rules of Professional Conduct of the State Bar of California. Any student who fails to comply with these standards, or whose conduct is of embarrassment to Monterey College of Law, will be suspended from further participation in the Program at the Dean's discretion.

Opportunities

Notices from courts, law firms, and agencies requesting student interns are posted on the student bulletin boards next to the student mail boxes.
Judicial Internships

Judicial Internships are sometimes available with local superior courts. The student may work with a specific judge, the court research attorneys, or several judges.

Legal Internships

Legal internships are sometimes available with governmental agencies, such as the District Attorney, Public Defender or County Counsel, private law firms, and legal services agencies which provide free (pro bono) assistance to needy clients.

(NOTE: A clinical student may not be supervised by an attorney who: 1) is related to the student by blood, marriage or domestic partnership; 2) by whom the student has been employed during the preceding twelve (12) months; and/or 3) with whom the student is otherwise significantly connected (e.g., business partner, significant other.)

Advisory Clinic

The Small Claims Advisory Clinic at Monterey College of Law provides students the opportunity to interview and provide free advice to people who have filed, or been served with, a Small Claims Court action in Monterey, San Benito, or Santa Cruz counties. Under the supervision of the Clinic Director, students learn to analyze the client's problem and assist in providing a legal solution.

Procedure

The student interested in participating in the Clinical Studies Program must do each of the following at the time of regular registration and before beginning work:

1. Obtain the Clinical Studies packet from the Registrar.
2. Submit a completed application form to the Registrar for potential approval by the Dean of Clinical Programs. If the application is approved, written notice will be given to the student.
3. Register and pay tuition for the unit(s).

Credit

Credit toward a clinical studies unit will be granted for work which meets the goal of acquisition of intellectual legal skills. Activities which satisfy the criteria for credit include such tasks as: participation in court or administrative proceedings; conferences with lawyers and other professionals; legal research; and drafting pleadings, motions, points and authorities, briefs, research memoranda, orders, discovery, contracts, and estate planning documents. Mere clerical tasks such as filing, photocopying, and answering telephones do not satisfy program criteria.

Students must complete at least sixty (60) work hours for each unit of credit in each semester to be eligible for credit. No more that seven (7) units of Clinical Study (including a maximum of two (2) units Small Claims Advisory Clinic, 2 units of ADR training and 4 units of ADR Practicum) may be applied towards Graduation credits. Clinical Study units may not supplant required Monterey College of Law curriculum course work.

Students wishing to receive credit for participating in the Clinical Studies Program may not receive compensation for the work performed.
Completion of Work

In order to obtain credit, students must submit the following to the Registrar prior to the end of the semester in which they want to receive credit:

1. VERIFIED TIME SHEETS. Students are required to keep time sheets detailing the date, a brief description of the work done and the amount of time consumed. These time sheets must be verified by the supervising attorney or judge.

2. SAMPLE WORK PRODUCT. Students must submit a minimum of five (5) pages of their intellectual work product for each unit of credit.

3. SUPERVISOR EVALUATION REPORT. The supervising attorney or judge evaluates the student's competence, professionalism, attitude and response to assigned responsibilities. Students may review their supervisors' evaluations.

4. STUDENT EVALUATION REPORT. The students evaluate the benefits and drawbacks of the placement and makes any suggestions for improvement.

All of the above materials must be submitted to the Registrar prior to the last day of examinations for the semester in which the student has registered for the unit(s). Failure to submit all materials by the deadline will preclude the award of any credit.

Grading

Students will receive a grade of "Pass" or "Fail" for any units of Clinical Study. The final grade will be determined by the Dean of Clinical Programs based on the verified time sheets, the supervisor's evaluation and the sample work product. No grade or credit will be given unless all required documents have been submitted to the Registrar.
Monterey College of Law students may be eligible to take elective courses for Clinical Studies credit for the summer semester through Study Abroad programs offered at ABA law schools.

Participation
In order to be considered for participation in a Study Abroad program, students must:
1. be in good standing, academically and financially and
2. obtain application approval from MCL Dean prior to summer registration at MCL.

Opportunities
Notices from law schools offering Study Abroad programs are posted on the bulletin boards across from the student mailboxes as well as in the student lounge. Students may also discover additional programs and present them to MCL for consideration.

Procedure
Student interested in participating in a Study Abroad program must provide the following:

Prior to Approval
1. A completed application to Study Abroad
2. Written documentation from the host institution describing:
   a. Study Abroad program overview
   b. course and unit credit
   c. course outline/syllabus
   d. hours and duration of course(s) to be taken

If your application is approved, you will be notified and may then proceed through the registration process. If your request is denied you will receive a written explanation.

After Approval
1. A copy of your acceptance notification from the Study Abroad program
2. A completed registration form indicating the number of Clinical Studies units to be taken through Study Abroad program. A maximum of three (3) units may be taken.
3. Appropriate registration and administrative fees.

The usual registration fee and administrative fee will be charged for courses taken through a Study Abroad program. You will not be charged MCL tuition for the units obtained.

Credit
Assuming Committee of Bar Examiners requirements are met (1 unit for credit for 15 hours of classroom teaching time), courses approved through a Study Abroad program will be awarded the same number of units at Monterey College of Law as are given by the issuing institution. All credit granted for Study Abroad programs will be in Clinical Studies units, and will be entered as such on the student’s official transcript.
Completion of Work
In order to obtain credit for Studies Abroad, the Registrar at Monterey College of Law must receive an official transcript sent directly from the issuing institution. This transcript must indicate the semester in which the course was taken, course name, credits granted and grade received. The student is responsible for requesting and paying for the transcript.

Grading
Students will receive a grade of Pass or Fail for courses completed through a Study Abroad program. The final grade will be determined by the Monterey College of Law Dean based on information provided in the official transcript submitted at the completion of the course. No grade or credit will be given until and unless all required documents have been received.

APPENDIX 8

COLLECTION PROCEDURES

ENROLLED STUDENTS:

15th of the Month: All student TIP payments are due.

1st Thurs of the Month: A statement is issued to all students (except those with zero balances for the semester) indicating the total amount still due and payable for the semester. A late fee of $50.00 will be included for each month the TIP payment was not received or was received later than the 15th).

Before Exams: A final statement is sent advising the student that he or she will not be permitted to take exams until all amounts have been paid.

Exam Week: The Dean is notified of the delinquent account and the student will be prevented from taking exams. If the student is allowed to take a make-up exam, a re-examination fee of $400.00 must be paid, per exam.

Semester End: In the unlikely event that a student takes exams with an unpaid balance due, no grades will be issued until the balance is paid in full, nor will the student be allowed to register for the next semester.

STUDENTS WHO HAVE WITHDRAWN FROM MCL STILL OWING MONEY:
Under the MCL tuition refund policy, a portion of the tuition is refunded depending on the date the student withdraws. See page 6 of the Student Handbook for the refund policy. If more than 60% of the semester is completed, the balance of tuition is due and owing.

If no effort is made to pay the outstanding balance, the account will be subject to further collection processes.
A variety of scholarships are available each fall and spring semester for MCL students. These scholarships cover a portion of tuition and are awarded on the basis of scholastic achievement, financial need, and/or service to MCL and the community.

Lupe Alonzo ’95 Memorial Scholarship
Started by his classmates after Lupe’s untimely death in June 1996, the scholarship is awarded to recognize a fourth year student who embodies the ideals of the legal profession as reflected in an essay on a topic selected by a committee of Lupe’s family and 1995 alumni.

Board of Trustees Scholarships
Multiple scholarships are awarded each fall and spring semester by the Board of Trustees with funds contributed by them and other supporters of Monterey College of Law. These scholarships are based on either financial need or academic excellence.

Ron Cisneros Memorial Scholarship
Created in memory of Ron Cisneros, former Director of the Affirmative Action Program at CSUMB, this scholarship will be awarded to a Monterey College of Law student who is a CSUMB graduate working in the area of social justice.

Jack Kadushin Scholarship
For a second, third or fourth year student who demonstrates the capacity to successfully complete the J.D. program and pass the Bar Exam.

Steve Cook Memorial Scholarship
Given to a graduating student to help defray the cost of a bar review course, the scholarship was established by his classmates when Mr. Cook was killed in a boating accident, just after graduation.

Justice Phil Gibson Scholarship
Endowed in memory of the Presiding Justice of the California Supreme Court from 1944 to 1964, the scholarship is awarded to a second, third, or fourth year law student on the basis of academic achievement.

Grover Hermann Scholarship
Endowed by his widow and friends in the legal profession, the Grover Hermann Scholarships are given each fall and spring semester on the basis of academic excellence to second, third, or fourth year students.

Ray Kiley Memorial Scholarship
Ray Kiley was a Probate Staff Attorney for the Superior Court of the County of Monterey. Upon Ray’s sudden death in 2005, his colleagues created this scholarship which is presented each year to the MCL Fourth Year student achieving the highest grade in the Wills and Trusts course.

MCL Studyships
These are study-scholarships created from an endowment by Monterey College of Law Trustee Patricia Smith Ramsey to enable a fourth year student to take a leave of absence from his or her employment in order to study for the Bar Exam.
Monterey County Women Lawyers Association Scholarship
This scholarship, given for the first time in 1996, is awarded to a woman in the fourth year class on the basis of service to MCL and the community, and financial need.

Patrick O'Shaughnessy Memorial Scholarship
Patrick O'Shaughnessy graduated from MCL in 1984 and practiced in the field of workers' compensation and personal injury. Upon Patrick’s untimely death in 2005, his colleagues and family created this scholarship that is presented each year to a Fourth Year MCL student residing in Monterey County and who has demonstrated an interest in legal issues and legal services for the underserved population within our community.

Joanne Quilty Memorial Scholarship
These scholarships are given to outstanding re-entry students using funds contributed by her family, friends and classmates, in memory of this MCL graduate who was killed in a plane crash.

Patricia Shanahan Memorial Scholarship
The scholarship is for financial assistance to a woman who is an MCL student and a resident of Santa Cruz County.

Judge Edward J. Smith Scholarship
Endowed in his memory by his daughter and member of the Board of Trustees, Patricia Smith Ramsey, this scholarship is awarded to an entering first year student each fall, based on financial need.

Foundation of the State Bar of California Scholarships
Given each Fall by the Foundation of the State Bar, this scholarship is awarded to second, third or fourth year law students who have at least a 2.5 GPA, maintain a good ethical standing, document an orientation toward public service, and require financial assistance.

Justice Pauline Davis Hanson Scholarship
The Fresno County Women Lawyers award this scholarship each Spring. The winner must be a second, third or fourth year woman law student who is a former or current resident of Fresno, Kings, Madera or Tulare County, is involved in her community and demonstrates financial need.

Japanese American Bar Association Education Foundation Scholarships
Established to honor Justice John Aiso and Justice Stephen Tamura, this scholarship is awarded to a law student who participates in the Asian Pacific American Community and demonstrates financial need and academic achievement.

Junior League of Monterey County Scholarships
The Junior League awards these scholarships each year to women over 21 years of age who have specific degree goals in mind, and demonstrate community involvement and financial need.

Kern County Women Lawyers Foundation
Awarded to both male and female students, this scholarship awards those who demonstrate good scholarship, financial need, and ties to Kern County, California.

Judge Mario G. Olmos Scholarship
The La Raza Lawyers Association, Fresno County Chapter, created this award in 1991 in memory of Fresno County Superior Court Judge Mario G. Olmos. Candidates must demonstrate academic achievement, established leadership ability, ties to the San Joaquin Valley and financial need and also be involved in the Latino community.
Imelda Rosenthal Memorial Scholarship
The Foundation of the State Bar of California awards this scholarship each year to a fourth year student who is taking the Bar exam for the first time. The candidate must demonstrate financial need and long-term commitment to public service. This scholarship was established through the generosity of Herbert Rosenthal.

Women's Opportunity Awards
Established by Soroptimist International of Carmel Bay, this scholarship awards women students who require specific training or education in order to obtain a higher level career, and demonstrate both financial need and the motivation to achieve their educational goals.
APPENDIX 10

MONTEREY COLLEGE OF LAW

STUDENT HONOR CODE

Law students, as future members of the legal profession, are subject to the responsibilities and ethical standards of the profession. The well-being of the profession and the integrity of Monterey College of Law depends upon the maintenance of such standards.

Misconduct

The following acts warrant discipline of a student:

1. Dishonesty in any form. This includes giving or receiving impermissible aid on tests, willfully violating instructions from teachers or test proctors, presenting as one’s own the intellectual property of another, or falsifying documents.

2. Disruptive conduct. This includes disruption of a school activity/program, or other students’ learning opportunities.

3. Theft, destruction, or defacement of school property or of property belonging to a member of the school community.

4. Willfully giving false or misleading information in connection with official school activities. This includes all types of applications and petitions.

5. Any act or omission which results in conviction of an offense involving moral turpitude.

6. Commission of any act that would subject the student to discipline by the State Bar of California if the student were an attorney.

Disciplinary Process

1. A person having knowledge of a matter that warrants student discipline may inform the Dean of the facts of the matter in writing and signed.

2. If the Dean determines that further inquiry is necessary, the student will be notified in writing of the alleged facts and afforded an opportunity to admit or deny them within five days. The Dean may dispose of the matter informally.

3. If the student denies the charge or fails to respond within five days:
   a) The Academic Standards Committee will conduct an informal hearing to determine the facts within 10 days after notification to the student.

   b) The student may obtain the assistance of counsel of the student’s own choosing, at the student’s expense. Witnesses may be called and cross-examined. The hearing will be electronically recorded but no written transcript will be prepared.

   c) A student may not be disciplined unless acts warranting discipline are proved by clear and convincing evidence. Evidence of such acts must be found to be reliable and trustworthy, but need not be admissible in a court of law.
4. If the student admits the charge either:

   a) The Dean will determine any disciplinary sanction, OR
   b) The Academic Standards Committee will meet to determine any disciplinary sanction.

   Under either alternative, the determination of disciplinary sanction is final.

Sanctions

1. Dismissal from school. At the Dean’s discretion the dismissal may be mandatory, or the student may voluntarily withdraw.

2. Remain in school on probation during which time the student must abide by specified terms and conditions. Conditions may include restitution for damage or costs caused by the student by payment or labor, abstention from extracurricular school activities, submission of written work, or other relevant conditions.

3. Formal or informal reprimand. Formal reprimand will include a written summary placed in the student’s file. No written record will be kept of an informal reprimand.

4. The Committee of Bar Examiners will be notified if a student has been disciplined on other than an informal reprimand basis.
APPENDIX 11

MONTEREY COLLEGE OF LAW
SEXUAL HARASSMENT POLICY

A. Introduction

Monterey College of Law strongly reaffirms the values of free and open exchange of ideas and the creation and dissemination of knowledge. We recognize the constitutionally protected right to free speech enjoyed by all members of our community and we endorse the principles of academic freedom for our faculty, staff, and students. To sustain this freedom and openness, members of the Monterey College of Law community must adhere to the highest standards of objectivity, mutual trust, and confidence; they must also avoid coercion, intimidation, or exploitation. The standards of conduct within our community require that all members understand that sexual harassment or retaliation have no legitimate place in this environment and are inimical to achieving our objectives.

Students, faculty, and staff have the right to work and learn free from unwanted sexual advances. Advances made by faculty or staff toward students or by supervisors toward subordinates unfairly exploit the power inherent in those relationships. Unwelcome sexual conduct or advances between students interfere with the ability to participate in and benefit from law school programs. In both obvious and subtle ways, the very possibility of sexual harassment can destroy individual members of our community and can poison their academic and career relationships.

Members of our educational community have the right to work and learn in an environment that is free from verbal or physical sexual conduct that might either interfere with an individual’s performance, or create a work or educational climate that is hostile, intimidating, or offensive, whether that conduct originates with an instructor, a supervisor, a staff member, or a peer.

Monterey College of Law is thus committed to creating and maintaining a community where all persons who participate in its programs and activities can work and learn together in an atmosphere free from all forms of harassment, exploitation, or intimidation. Monterey College of Law will respond promptly and effectively to reports of sexual harassment, and will take appropriate action to prevent, to correct, and if necessary, to discipline behavior that violates this policy.

B. Definition of Sexual Harassment

Sexual harassment is unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature, when submitting to or rejecting this conduct explicitly or implicitly affects a person’s employment or education, interferes with a person’s work or educational performance, or creates an intimidating, hostile or offensive working or learning environment. To prevent sexual harassment or retaliation, Monterey College of Law will respond to reports of any such conduct.

Sexual harassment may include incidents between any members of the Monterey College of Law community, including faculty, academic appointees, staff, students, and non-student or non-employee participants in programs. Sexual harassment may occur in hierarchical relationships or between peers, or between persons of the same sex or the opposite sex. To determine whether the reported conduct constitutes sexual harassment, the record of the conduct as a whole and the totality of the circumstances will be considered, including the context in which the conduct occurred.
This policy covers unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature. Consensual romantic relationships between members of the Monterey College of Law community may be subject to other policies. While romantic relationships between members of the Monterey College of Law community may begin as consensual, they may evolve into situations that lead to charges of sexual harassment, subject to this policy.

Every member of our community should also be aware of special considerations for relationships between instructors and students currently enrolled in their classes or academic programs. Because of the power possessed by an instructor, and the special need for trust inherent in the teacher/student relationship, an instructor’s romantic or sexual advance to a student in her or his class or academic program may seriously compromise that relationship. Unwelcome romantic or sexual advances from an instructor to a student currently enrolled in her or his course must be regarded as a serious breach of professional ethics and proper standards of professional behavior. Such overtures can impair the educational environment, not only for the instructor and the student singled out for her or his attentions, but also for the other students enrolled in the course. Other students may believe they are negatively affected by the relationship, for example through unacceptable discrimination regarding grading, references, access to resources, and educational opportunities.

C. Retaliation

This policy also prohibits retaliation against a person who reports sexual harassment, assists someone with a report of sexual harassment, or participates in any manner in an investigation or resolution of a sexual harassment report. Retaliation includes threats, intimidation, reprisals, and/or adverse actions related to employment or education.

D. Reports of Sexual Harassment

Any member of the Monterey College of Law community may report conduct that they believe constitutes sexual harassment under this policy. The report may be in writing or verbal (oral). In addition, supervisors, managers, and other designated employees are responsible for taking any action needed to prevent sexual harassment, to correct it when it occurs, and to report it promptly to the Sexual Harassment Officer (currently the Director of Admissions and Student Services) or other appropriate official designated to review and investigate sexual harassment complaints.

E. Response to Sexual Harassment

The Sexual Harassment Officer shall provide a prompt and effective response to reports of sexual harassment in accordance with these procedures. A prompt and effective response may include early resolution, formal investigation, and/or targeted training or educational programs. On findings of sexual harassment, Monterey College of Law may offer remedies to the individual or individuals harmed by the harassment consistent with applicable complaint resolution and grievance procedures. Such remedies may include counseling, an opportunity to repeat course work without penalty, changes to student housing assignments, or other appropriate interventions. Any member of the Monterey College of Law community who is found to have engaged in sexual harassment is subject to disciplinary action up to and including dismissal.

Generally, disciplinary action will be recommended when the harassing conduct is sufficiently severe, persistent, or pervasive that it alters the conditions of employment or limits the opportunity to participate in or benefit from educational programs. Any manager, supervisor, or designated employee responsible for reporting or responding to sexual harassment who knew about the harassment and took no action to stop it or failed to report the prohibited harassment also may be subject to disciplinary action.
action. Conduct by an employee that is sexual harassment or retaliation in violation of this policy is considered to be outside the normal course and scope of employment.

F. Intentionally False Reports

Because sexual harassment frequently involves interactions between persons that are not witnessed by others, reports of sexual harassment cannot always be substantiated by additional evidence. Lack of corroborating evidence or "proof" should not discourage individuals from reporting sexual harassment under this policy. However, individuals who make reports that are later found to have been intentionally false or made maliciously without regard for truth, may be subject to disciplinary action. This provision does not apply to reports made in good faith, even if the facts alleged in the report cannot be substantiated by an investigation.

G. Free Speech and Academic Freedom

The administration, faculty, staff, and students of Monterey College of Law enjoy significant free speech protections guaranteed by the First Amendment of the United States Constitution and Article I, Section I of the California Constitution. This policy is intended to protect members of Monterey College of Law community from discrimination, not to regulate protected speech. This policy shall be implemented in a manner that recognizes the importance of rights to freedom of speech and expression.

Monterey College of Law also has a compelling interest in free inquiry and the collective search for knowledge and thus recognizes principles of academic freedom as a special area of protected speech. Consistent with these principles, no provision of this policy shall be interpreted to prohibit conduct that is legitimately related to the course content, teaching methods, scholarship, or public commentary of an individual faculty member or the educational, political, artistic, or literary expression of students in classrooms and public forums. But, freedom of speech and academic freedom are not without limit, and the college will not permit speech or expressive conduct that violates federal or state anti-discrimination laws.

H. Additional Enforcement Information

The federal Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) and the California Department of Fair Employment and Housing (DFEH) also investigate complaints of unlawful harassment in employment. The U.S. Department of Education Office for Civil Rights (OCR) investigates complaints of unlawful harassment of students in educational programs or activities. These agencies may serve as neutral fact finders and attempt to facilitate the voluntary resolution of disputes with the parties. For more information, contact the nearest office of the EEOC, DFEH or OCR listed in the telephone directory.

I. Reporting Procedures

A report or complaint of sexual harassment shall be defined as any meeting or discussion with the Sexual Harassment Officer, or any formal written report or complaint made to inform Monterey College of Law that sexual harassment may have occurred. Persons experiencing problems with sexual harassment are encouraged to report them as soon as possible. Once a report has been made, in whatever form, Monterey College of Law official who has received the report should inform the SHO as soon as possible.

Oral reports of sexual harassment may be resolved informally. When a report is made in a written statement, informing Monterey College of Law that sexual harassment may have occurred and providing information sufficient for further inquiry, investigation by the SHO is required and may result in disciplinary or corrective action after due process is provided to the accused, if it is found that harassment has taken place.

Any member of Monterey College of Law’s administration, faculty, or staff who receives reports of sexual harassment should report the matter to the SHO as soon as possible and also inform the complainants of their right to see the SHO or to file a formal complaint.

Although responsible officials will attempt to respect the wishes of the complainant with regard to action taken in response to the complaint, Monterey College of Law will take appropriate disciplinary or corrective action whenever deemed necessary to meet the college’s responsibilities to provide a safe and non-discriminatory environment for other students and employees. The only case in which a complainant ordinarily may ensure that no action is taken on the complaint is when the person does not disclose the name or other details that would identify the accused.

Repeated sexual harassment of one or more individuals by the same offender must be taken as a more serious offense for purposes of disciplinary action; therefore, all reports and complaints of sexual harassment must be reported to the SHO, who is authorized to keep records of sexual harassment reports and complaints.

J. The Sexual Harassment Officer

The SHO is authorized to receive and resolve reports and complaints of sexual harassment and conduct fact-finding investigations of sexual harassment complaints. The SHO may, at her or his discretion, conduct a survey of any class taught by a faculty member or instructor about whom a sexual harassment complaint has been made and may request the attendance of the dean at any meeting with a faculty member or instructor to discuss a sexual harassment complaint filed against that person. All members of the campus community will cooperate fully with the SHO in fulfilling his or her responsibilities.

The SHO shall serve as consultant to law school officials who receive and resolve reports of sexual harassment and shall serve as principal advisor on sexual harassment policy and procedures. The SHO shall maintain files of all reports and complaints of sexual harassment, separate from any other personnel files, and shall maintain information on the number, location, and nature of reports and complaints.

The SHO shall attempt to resolve any reports of sexual harassment by informing, educating, mediating, or negotiating informal agreements. If no resolution can be reached that is acceptable to both parties and to Monterey College of Law, the SHO may institute a sexual harassment investigation, at the request of the complainant, when the report is made in writing.

The goal of early resolution is to resolve concerns at the earliest stage possible, with the cooperation of all parties involved. Early resolution may include an inquiry into the facts, but typically does not include a formal investigation. Means for resolution shall be flexible and encompass a full range of possible appropriate outcomes. Early resolution includes options such as mediating an agreement between the parties, separating the parties, referring the parties to counseling programs, negotiating an agreement for disciplinary action, conducting targeted educational and training programs, or remedies for the individual harmed by the harassment. Early resolution can also include options such as discussions with the parties, making recommendations for resolution, and conducting follow-up after a period of time to assure that the resolution has been implemented effectively. Steps taken to encourage resolution and agreements reached through early resolution efforts should be documented.
The SHO shall investigate all written complaints of sexual harassment in a timely manner. The SHO may also determine that an investigation is warranted without a written complaint, either because of the severity of the allegations reported, or because of the frequency of allegations against the accused, or for any other reason.

1. Fact-finding Investigation

The SHO shall investigate the circumstances of the alleged offense to the extent necessary to make a determination as to whether the allegations contained in the complaint constitute a violation of the Sexual Harassment Policy. This investigation should normally be completed within thirty (30) calendar days. If the investigation cannot be completed within that time, the SHO will so inform the complainant and the accused.

The SHO will interview anyone and examine any evidence deemed necessary to investigate the complaint fully. If the complainant or the accused request, her/his initial interview with the SHO will be tape recorded, and a copy provided. Although the SHO may seek the advice and assistance of the dean or Board of Directors in conducting the investigation, the investigation will normally be conducted only by the SHO.

2. SHO’s Report

The SHO shall prepare a written report that includes a determination whether the facts do not support the allegations and the complaint should be dismissed; or (2) evidence of a violation of the Sexual Harassment Policy warrants remedial action. The SHO in cooperation with the relevant law school officials will ensure that the appropriate remedies are provided to the complainant, regardless of the outcome of the disciplinary process.

If the case is to be dismissed, a copy of the report with information related to third parties deleted, will be sent to the complainant, the accused, and kept in the SHO's files. The complainant has the right to appeal the dismissal and/or proposed remedies to the Advisory Council within fifteen (15) working days after notice from the SHO.

Even if the SHO does not make a finding of a violation of the Sexual Harassment Policy, but the SHO believes the behavior complained of may constitute misconduct, the SHO may refer the matter to the Dean or the Board of Directors.

K. Appeal of Sexual Harassment Officer’s Findings and Proposed Remedies

An Advisory Council for the SHO shall be appointed by the president of the Board of Directors of Monterey College of Law. The Council will be composed of the Personnel Committee of the Board of Directors, plus two faculty members, one of whom is male and one of whom is female, to be named by the Dean and the president of the Board of Directors.

The Advisory Council shall meet as required with the SHO to review issues and incidents of sexual harassment, providing advice when appropriate. All incidents are to be discussed without names or identifying details, and all discussions will be confidential to the extent required by law and due process considerations. The Advisory Council will be informed of the outcome of the resolution of cases.
The complainant may appeal the SHO's findings and/or proposed remedies to the Advisory Council within fifteen (15) working days of the receipt of findings/proposed remedies. The Advisory Council shall review the complainant's appeal and provide the SHO the opportunity to respond to the appeal in writing and to amend the findings/proposed remedies within fifteen (15) working days of receipt of the appeal from the complainant. The Advisory Council shall notify the complainant, the SHO, and the accused of the outcome of this review, any amended findings/proposed remedies, and the next step to be taken, within fifteen (15) working days after Council review is completed.

L. Privacy

Monterey College of Law shall protect the privacy of individuals involved in a report of sexual harassment to the extent required by law and law school policy. A report of sexual harassment may result in the gathering of extremely sensitive information about individuals in Monterey College of Law community. While such information is considered confidential, applicable policy regarding access to public records and disclosure of personal information may require disclosure of certain information concerning a report of sexual harassment. In such cases, every effort shall be made to redact the records to protect the privacy of individuals. An individual who has reported sexual harassment may be advised of sanctions imposed against the accused when the individual needs to be aware of the sanction in order for it to be fully effective (such as restrictions on communication or contact with the individual who made the report).

Information about disciplinary action taken against the accused shall not be disclosed without the accused's consent, unless it is necessary to ensure compliance with the action or the safety of individuals. Letters of warning and records of other disciplinary actions concerning sexual harassment are to be kept in staff or faculty personnel files and in a student's confidential file. Where there has been a finding, after a due process hearing or after investigation, or an acknowledgment of wrong-doing by staff or faculty, notice shall be placed in their personnel files. Where there has been a finding, after a due process hearing or after investigation, or an acknowledgment of wrong-doing, notice shall be placed in the student's confidential file.

M. Maintaining Records and Files

The Sexual Harassment Officer will maintain confidential records of all reports and complaints of sexual harassment. The file will contain all information, including complaints and reports, formal review documents, investigation reports, any response by the accused to the report, any record of appeal, any findings, remedies and the result of the appeal, and a record of correspondence notifying the complainant and accused of actions taken and the progress of the complaint.

Files will be maintained on all reports of sexual harassment, whether they result in a formal investigation or not. The files are considered "confidential" for purposes of access and will be maintained in a secure location. Both the complainant and accused may have access to the record to the extent permitted by existing law. The name of any complainant or informant requesting confidentiality will not be included in the file. Other Monterey College of Law officials may have access if the disclosure is relevant and necessary in the ordinary course of the performance of their official duties and is related to the purpose for which the information was acquired. Access may also be given in response to a subpoena, court order or other compulsory legal process. Before the disclosure, the SHO should reasonably attempt to notify the individual to whom the record pertains, if the notification is not prohibited by law.
SHO files will be retained until five years after separation of the accused from law school employment or in the case of a student until five years after graduation; provided there has been no further report or complaint concerning the conduct of the accused for five (5) continuous years, from the date of the last report or complaint, the file will be destroyed. All records pertaining to pending litigation or a request for records shall be maintained in accordance with instructions from legal counsel.

N. Confidentiality of Reports of Sexual Harassment

Certain persons may have an obligation to respond to reports of sexual harassment, even if the individual making the report requests that no action be taken. An individual’s request for confidentiality of reports of sexual harassment will be considered in determining an appropriate response; however, such requests will be considered in the dual contexts of Monterey College of Law’s efforts to ensure a working and learning environment free from sexual harassment and the due process rights of the accused to be informed of the allegations and their source. Some level of disclosure may be necessary to ensure a complete and fair investigation, although Monterey College of Law will comply with requests for confidentiality to the extent possible.
I. Purpose: The purpose of the Student Bar Association (SBA) is to serve as an advocate for Monterey College of Law (MCL) students; to enhance communication between the students, the MCL Board of Trustees and administration regarding student issues; to provide opportunities for participation; and to enhance the students’ experience at MCL.

II. Membership: All MCL students are members of the SBA. A mandatory fee is charged at the beginning of the fall, spring, and summer semesters. The fees are used to finance SBA-sanctioned activities and provide a range of student benefits, including preparation and distribution of fall and spring exam packs.

Honorary Members: The SBA may, from time to time, designate individuals as non-voting honorary members in recognition of their significant contributions to the SBA.

III. Meetings: SBA meetings shall be regularly scheduled and held, at least once per month, if practicable, when classes are in session. Special meetings can be called by the President or any Officer and two Representatives.

IV. Officers: The SBA Board will be comprised of four elected Officers, and eleven elected Representatives, (see section V, ‘Representatives’, below). All SBA Board members’ terms are for one year. No student may simultaneously hold more than one SBA Board member position.

Officers are: President, Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer. Each Officer must be either a second year (2L), third year (3L), or fourth year (4L) student in good standing. A student’s class level (i.e. 1L, 2L, 3L, 4L) shall be based on projected year of graduation, as determined by MCL administration. All Officers shall maintain records of their activities and duties in a binder to be passed on to the succeeding office holder to assist in orienting the new officer. Officer responsibilities and duties detailed below are not all-inclusive.

President: The President shall be the chief executive officer; shall preside at all meetings; shall supervise, direct and administer the business and affairs of the SBA, subject to its by-laws. The President, or Secretary, at the President’s request, shall prepare an agenda to be distributed in advance of SBA meetings.

Exam Packs: The President shall be responsible for collecting and organizing the fall and spring semester Exam Packs, which may contain the five most recent previous years’ exams, with professor outlines and selected student answers, where available, as provided by the MCL Registrar.

Vice-President: The Vice-President shall assist the President and, in the absence of the President, act in that capacity. The Vice-President shall be responsible for use, maintenance and supplies for all machines for which the SBA has contracted: the copy machine, vending machines, water cooler.

Exam Packs: The Vice President shall assist the President with Exam Packs, including preparing and distributing digital copies of Exam Packs to Class Representatives not more than 30 days after the start of each semester.

Secretary: The Secretary shall keep a book of minutes of all meetings, proceedings, and actions of the SBA and of any committees. The minutes of meetings shall include the time and place that the meeting was held, the names of those present, and a record of actions taken. The Secretary shall ensure that meeting notices are posted in all classrooms and that a copy of the minutes will be posted on the SBA bulletin board within one week of the meeting.

Communications: The Secretary shall create and distribute flyers, posters, and any relevant information to all MCL students for upcoming SBA-sponsored events.
MCL Website: The Secretary shall be responsible for coordinating with MCL administration to help ensure that the SBA portion of the MCL website is current and correct regarding SBA Board membership, meeting minutes, and bylaws.

Student ID Cards: The Secretary shall be responsible for organizing, creating, and distributing student ID cards, and accounting to Treasurer as necessary.

Treasurer: The Treasurer shall keep adequate and correct accounts and records of the SBA’s financial transactions. The Treasurer shall make a regular financial report at SBA meetings. Written financial reports, when presented, shall be attached to the meeting minutes. The Treasurer shall deposit funds of the SBA, disburse funds for approved expenditures, and shall obtain the signature of another officer for any disbursement. A review of accounts shall be conducted and reported at the first SBA meeting of the fall and spring semesters, by two other Officers. The Treasurer shall be responsible for collecting and replenishing the money for the coin-op attachment to the copy machine.

V. Representatives: The SBA Board will include eleven elected Representatives, consisting of eight Class Representatives and three Student Representatives as follows:

- Class Representatives: Each class year’s students (i.e. 1L, 2L, 3L, 4L) will elect two Class Representatives to serve as the conduit through which their respective class’ concerns and issues will be communicated to the SBA. 1L Class Representatives shall consist of one representative from each of the Seaside and Santa Cruz campuses, respectively. Class Representatives are to keep their respective class advised and current regarding SBA activities and events.

- Exam Packs: Class Representatives shall be responsible for distributing electronic copies of Exam Packs to all members of their respective classes.

- Student Representatives: The MCL student body will elect three Student Representatives as described in the section below. Each Student Representative must be either a second (2L), third (3L), or fourth (4L) student in good standing.

- Student Representative to the MCL Board of Trustees (Board)

  A Student Representative will attend meetings of the Board as a non-voting member with all rights and duties. The tasks of the Student Representative will be to maintain a dialogue between the Board, SBA officers and Class Representatives and student body in general by keeping the Board abreast of student concerns and initiatives, lending support to Board as a member wherever possible and reporting back to and participating in SBA meetings on a regular basis.

- Student Representative to the Monterey County Bar Association (MCBA)

  The Student Representative to the MCBA shall be a second, third, or fourth year student in good standing. The Student Representative shall serve a full calendar year (i.e. beginning in the spring semester); however, transition and coordination with the outgoing Student Representative begins following election in the fall.

  The Student Representative to the MCBA is the sole MCL student body representative to the MCBA, requiring the highest levels of professionalism and respect, and is to be a voice for MCL, to lobby for the future lawyers of the Monterey Bay area. The Student Representative’s top priority is to foster relationships between the MCBA and the MCL student body.

  The Student Representative must attend all MCBA monthly meetings, and has the same voting rights as all members of the MCBA, and is required to be a member of the MCBA ($25 annual fee). The Student Representative must sit on one of the MCBA’s standing committees and participate in those meetings (usually every other month; sometimes by email, sometimes in person).

  The Student Representative is also responsible for organizing MCL student volunteers for MCBA events, and for posting notices of MCBA events and job postings of potential interest to MCL students. This is an active position on the MCBA board, and is a stepping stone to a lot of opportunities, and can be what the Student Representative makes of it.

- Student Representative to the Santa Cruz County Bar Association (SCCBA)

  The SCCBA has voted to receive a MCL Student Representative to the SCCBA as a non-voting participant for the year of 2012. The SCCBA will review the results of the temporary relationship at the end of 2012 and make further decisions for 2013 at that time.
The Student Representative to the SCCBA shall be a second, third, or fourth year student in good standing. The Student Representative shall serve a full calendar year (i.e. beginning in the spring semester); however, transition and coordination with the outgoing Student Representative begins following election in the fall, provided that the SCCBA elects to continue the position.

For general guidelines regarding the Student Representative’s rights and responsibilities, refer to the Student Representative to the MCBA (above) for potentially analogous descriptions.

VI. Elections: Elections for all SBA Board member positions will be held in the fall semester. Nominations will be begin on the second Monday of the fall semester, during which time debates, forums, and campaigns may be conducted. Votes will be cast no later than the third Thursday of the fall semester. Transfer of power will occur as soon as is reasonably practicable.

Election Committee: Election-related activities will be conducted under the auspices of an Election Committee. The Election Committee will be comprised of at least three student volunteers, none of whom shall be running for office. The Election Committee shall be appointed by the SBA Officers at the Officers discretion, and will serve until the election results are finalized.

The Election Committee will be responsible for informing all classes of the SBA election process; gathering nominations for all offices and representative positions; preparing and distributing ballots; tabulating and announcing results.

Vacancy: In the event of a vacancy or resignation of an SBA Board member, the President shall direct an Election Committee to hold a special election for the vacant office no later than 30 days after the President has been notified of such vacancy or resignation. The newly elected Officer or Representative shall serve the remainder of the effective term of the Officer or Representative.

VII. Voting Members: The SBA Board has fourteen regular voting members: Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, Student Representative to the MCL Board of Trustees, Student Representative to the MCBA, Student Representative to the SCCBA, and two Class Representatives from each class year (i.e. 1L, 2L, 3L, 4L). SBA Board members must be present to vote, or submit a written proxy. In the event of a tie, the President will cast the deciding vote.

VIII. Quorum: A quorum shall consist of a majority of the Officers and Representatives; seven, including not less than two Officers and two Representatives, each representing different classes.

IX. Removal: An SBA Board member shall be removed from office when approved by three-fourths of the voting SBA Board members who are present at the meeting. If an SBA Board member is removed, a special election shall be held to elect a replacement according to the Vacancy procedures.

SBA Board members shall be removed only for good cause. Failure to adequately perform the obligations of the office or position shall constitute good cause for removal and may be evidenced by any of the following:

* Failure to attend three consecutive regular SBA meetings.
* Failure to attend at least one-half of all meetings in any one semester.
* Failure to carry out the duties or responsibilities of the office or position.
* Expulsion or suspension from MCL.

SBA Board members shall be removed only following notice and an opportunity to be heard at a regularly scheduled SBA meeting.

X. Rules of Order: Roberts Rules of Order shall be followed during meetings.

XI. Amendments to the Bylaws: Amendments to the Bylaws shall be proposed in advance in writing and voted upon at the next regular SBA meeting. Three-quarters of voting members present must approve changes.
