

San Luis Obispo College of Law Advisory Board 2023 Scholarship Information and Application

The Advisory Board of the San Luis Obispo College of Law announces that it will confer one $5,000 Scholarship to a SLOCL student in 2023. Advisory Board Members, the local legal community, and other donors have contributed the funds to make this award possible.

Eligibility: Only students enrolled in SLOCL or 2023 SLOCL graduates studying for the Bar Exam are eligible. The Scholarship award will be announced and disbursed in the early weeks of the Fall semester. Prior Advisory Board Scholarship recipients are not eligible to reapply. Applicants will be evaluated on their academic performance in addition to the information addressed in their personal statement.

Terms: Advisory Board Scholarships may be used to assist with living expenses, tuition, books, bar exam expenses or as otherwise needed to further your legal education. A Committee of SLOCL Advisory Board Members will review applications and recommend one Scholarship recipient. Committee members sign an oath of confidentiality and impartiality. The Monterey College of Law Scholarship Committee, which has access to students' academic performance, has final approval.

To Apply:

- 1. Complete the attached Application Cover Sheet. Your application is confidential. Return the completed application (Cover Sheet plus attachments) via email to Campus Dean Erica Flores Baltodano at ebaltodano@slolaw.org. Your complete application must be received by 5:00 p.m. on July 28. Incomplete or late applications will not be considered.
- 2. Attach to your Application Cover Sheet (a) resume, including education, work (paid or unpaid), community, volunteer, and/or clinic experience, if any; (b) two signed letters of recommendation on letterhead from non-relatives; and (c) a personal statement not to exceed 600 words addressing why you decided to go to law school, what challenges or other life experiences you have faced that impact your law school experience, and what you hope to contribute to society and/or achieve after law school.
