

JD Catalog and Graduation Requirements

JD students at Monterey College of Law, San Luis Obispo College of Law, Kern College of Law, Empire College of Law, and in the Hybrid Online JD must complete 90 units to graduate.

The majority of law school courses emphasize substantive law using the traditional casebook method. Advocacy, writing, and clinical courses emphasize practical skills. The Clinical Studies Program encourages students to participate in internships under the supervision of practicing lawyers and judges.

Because the Law Schools’ curriculum is designed as a part-time program, the courses follow a prescribed sequence that anticipates completion in four years.

In order to graduate, students must attain a 70.0 cumulative grade point average (GPA) with a minimum of 90 credits of study, and be in good financial standing.

Students must complete both required and elective units to satisfy the graduation requirements.

Policies and requirements may be found on the school's website and in the Student Handbook.
